Offer $500 For Best Poem About Rose For Song

Tournament of Roses Association Announces Contest for Verses

PASADENA, June 14.—Announcing an offer of $500 for the best poem in tribute to the rose, and with the further announcement that the poem selected will be set to music by Carrie Jacobs Bond and be adopted as the official song of the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Year's Day, the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association today asked the poets of the country to submit their verses.

No poem should be less than 12 nor more than 20 lines long. No blank or free verse will be considered. All poems must be submitted to the Tournament of Roses Association before August 15, 1926. Contestants should keep a copy of their poem, as none will be returned. Competent judges will make the award by October 1. A tribute to the roses must be the central theme of the poem. The competition is open to everybody.
